Day 1 - Saturday, May 31

Welcome to Sicily, the largest region in Italy, where a tapestry of dominations, languages, traditions, and ancient cultures intertwine, forming an extraordinary and deeply rooted cultural mosaic.

Your private driver awaits you at the arrivals area exit at Catania Airport. Sit back, relax, and settle into the car - it's off to your accommodation in Taormina.

Welcome Dinner is planned tonight nearby your hotel.

Hotel: Villa Paradiso, Taormina
Meals: Welcome Reception, Dinner

Day 2 - Sunday, June 1

Arguably one of the most thrilling experiences in Sicily awaits!

A rugged Jeep will whisk you from your hotel, accompanied by a seasoned naturalist guide primed to unveil the raw majesty of Mount Etna — the highest active volcano on the Eurasian plate and UNESCO World Heritage Site since 2013!!

Prepare for awe-inspiring vistas, postcard-perfect panoramas, a kaleidoscope of colors, and an untouched symphony of sounds far from the bustling crowds. With over 400 craters and trails resembling scenes from a fairy tale, this adventure promises an immersive experience where mind and body harmonize, plunging you into one of nature's most enthralling landscapes. Enchantingly led by a naturalist guide whose knowledge and passion will leave you spellbound!

The tour's crescendo? A visit to one of the finest Etna DOC Wineries — a perfect cap to an extraordinary day!

Hotel: Villa Paradiso, Taormina
Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 3 - Monday, June 2

Pietro D'Agostino stands as one of Sicily's most innovative and esteemed chefs, a recipient of a coveted Michelin star! As the Executive Chef, Pietro will expertly lead and supervise the cooking class, imparting invaluable techniques to effortlessly handle and prepare dishes ingeniously adapted and crafted by the aspiring 'chefs for a day'. Your culinary creations will culminate in a delightful lunch paired with exquisite Sicilian wines, completing this immersive gastronomic journey!

At the end of the cooking class, lunch and transfer to Siracusa.

Hotel: GH Des Etrangers, Siracusa
Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Day 4 – Tuesday, June 3

Today we explore the beautiful city of Siracusa; a UNESCO World Heritage Site. A living testament to human achievement, this gem encapsulates a multimillennial architectural and cultural treasure trove, preserving antiquities predating its Greek origins.

Prepare for a completely different experience as we visit the the Neapolis Archaeological Park which stands as a natural haven housing an array of archaeological treasures spanning various periods of Siracusa's illustrious history.

Enter the realm of history as you encounter the Roman amphitheater, a remarkable testament to early Roman imperial architecture. Additionally, immerse yourself in the grandeur of the Greek Theater, a legendary relic from antiquity where monumental tragedies and comedies once graced the stage. We also stop at the Fratelli Burgio's Salumeria, nestled in the heart of Ortigia and its market, represents one of its most iconic places! Here, in fact, you can enjoy fine cold cuts and cheeses, but also many specialties of the typical Mediterranean tradition, recovered with passion: to bind the quality and genuineness of the products.

And lastly, we explore Ortigia, the ancient heart of Siracusa... Its winding alleys pulse with vibrant life, adorned with bustling markets offering local delights, inviting seafood eateries, and charming cheese, fruit, and vegetable shops. Delve into its charm as you uncover hidden treasures like ancient temples, fortresses, and churches tucked away in every corner, including the grandeur of the Cathedral majestically perched atop an ancient Greek temple.

Hotel: GH Des Etrangers, Siracusa

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 5 – Wednesday, June 4

Immerse yourself in Planeta Buonivini, where Nero d'Avola and Moscato Bianco grapes flourish to create Santa Cecilia DOC Noto and Passito di Noto DOC wines at Cantina Invisibile. This ecological estate, with its soft hills and limestone soils, nurtures vines alongside almond, carob, and olive trees, emblematic of the Mediterranean.

Join a private guided tour through these thriving vineyards, sensing the synergy between nature and winemaking. Experience a curated tasting of these exceptional wines, relishing the terroir's essence in every sip. Conclude with a delectable lunch, perfectly paired with Buonivini's exquisite wines, savoring the essence of Sicilian wine culture in each bite and sip!

Hotel: GH Des Etrangers, Siracusa

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 6 – Thursday, June 5

Today is a big day: your private guide will orient you to one of the top highlights of your Sicilian sojourn!

Prepare to witness something truly extraordinary: the exceptionally well-preserved Greek temples that stand as some of the most authentic remnants of antiquity worldwide. Nestled within the renowned Valley of the Temples of Agrigento, this site in Italy draws countless visitors due to its unparalleled preservation. (cont. on next page)
